

Contracts & Careers

CM Inc. specializes in providing quality business and Information Technology services. In addition to helping business and government agencies seek efficient IT solutions, we have provided effective recruitment and placement services since 1987.

CM Inc. provides a complete portfolio of services to identify HR needs of employers, and to match them with appropriate candidates:

- Conduct and oversee successful recruitment on behalf of numerous public and private sector organizations
- HR consulting support to link organizations' strategic business plans with their HR strategies
- Permanent placements ranging from VP & CIO to all levels
- Long and short-term contract placements of IT and general professionals

CM Inc.'s placement and consulting professionals are trained and experienced in IT & general recruitment. We owe our success to:

- An extensive, up-to-date HR database
- Advanced knowledge of business environments
- Flexible approach to meet the most stringent requirements
- Co-operative, experienced team of recruitment and placement experts

Importantly, our range of services, attention to detail and follow-through will keep you coming back, at rates very friendly to your bottom line.
